

'Big Wig': Transcript

A little girl puts her hands above her head in a ballet style.

Girl: I'll be a ballerina when I grow big.

A girl with Down's Syndrome dressed as an angel is laughing while an adult holds her up.

Girl: I'd like to be an actress and wear a wig.

A man in a wheelchair with five children around him, points up to round lamps painted as planets. One boy looks at a planet with fascination.

Boy: I'd be an astronaut and go in space for a walk.

A baby holds a book with an apple on the front while a woman laughs.

Woman: Yum yum. Eat that book.

Several children are making a crocodile out of paper mache.

Boy: I'd be a crocodile in a river. I'd eat lots of meat, but not liver.

Voiceover: Have you got what it takes to inspire children?

To find out more about the range of jobs and training opportunities in childcare phone 0800 99 66 00.