

'Tandem': Transcript

A woman turns the camera on – this is obviously a home recording.

Dan: I'm Dan and today for the very first time I'm going cycling.

The woman puts her arm around Dan and gives him his helmet. Cut to a shot of a tandem bike, Dan is on the back. A close-up of his face reveals he is blind. The woman waves them both off. Dan starts to smile as the background changes.

Cut to Dan sitting in the countryside and his friend reading a map.

Dan: We're lost aren't we?

Two men appear over the gate and give directions. They have a cup of tea. Cut to Dan running beside the bike.

Friend: Are you pushing?

He is not.

Dan: Yeh!

Dan starts pushing.

A close up of the tyre reveals the bike has got a puncture.

Dan: So what are we going to do now?

Dan and his friend are outside the bank.

Dan: And this is the very first time I've ever got my benefit out of a bank. Now my benefit's paid by Direct Payment I can just go in here and get it.

Dan and his friend show the train tickets they have bought with the money. The shot looks like he is on the bike again, but really he is just up against the train window!

Voiceover: Direct Payment can make getting your money more convenient. Call 0800 107 200 to change to Direct Payment today. Direct Payment - giving it to you straight.
